Negotiations Continue for Golden State Foods Warehouse Contract

Teamsters Local 710 members and representatives met again July 15-16 in Oak Brook for continued negotiations of the new Golden State Foods warehouse contract.

The Local 710 Bargaining Committee made significant progress on several quality of life issues presented by the membership. These issues include hours worked, seniority and vacation bids for approximately 75 warehouse employees working at Golden State Foods' facility in McCook.

The committee consists of three rank-and-file members and several representatives of Local 710. Any questions regarding negotiations should be directed to any member of the bargaining committee or Business Agent Chuck DeCola at (773) 254-3200.

Bargaining Committee:

- Brett Dusdecker
- Dennis Evitts, Jr.
- Tim Glackin

Negotiations are scheduled to continue on Tuesday, July 28.
