Retiree Spotlight: Local 710 Auburn Supply Driver Ron Scanlan

Teamster Retires After 38 Years as Union Member

Teamsters Local 710 member Ron Scanlan retired this past September after 38 years as a union worker.

He began his union career as a member of the International Union of Operating Engineers Local 150. He joined the Teamsters in 2009 as a Local 710 member working as a plumbing supply delivery driver at Auburn Supply in Markham, Ill.

“It’s always great to have the privilege to work with a person who’s been a union member for as long as Ron has,” said Local 710 Business Agent Mike Ramirez. “We wish nothing but the best for Ron as he enjoys a truly well-earned retirement.”

Local 710 is proud of the dedication of all our hardworking Teamster members. We have countless members with many dedicated years in the union who serve as phenomenal leaders and role models to our entire membership. If you or a fellow member are retiring and would like to be a featured retiree in our Local 710 news, please contact info@teamsters710.com.

Teamsters Local 710 is an affiliate of Teamsters Joint Council 25, America’s premier labor union for Chicago, Illinois and northwest Indiana.

Ron Scanlan gets ready for one of his last days as a plumbing supply delivery driver, retiring after nearly four decades as a union member.
